KRAUSHAAR & CO.

THE MOST IMPROVED
GRAND AND SQUARE
PIANO-FORTES,
[Full Iron Frame and Overstrung Bass, MANUFACTORY AND WAREHOUSE
No. 19
West Houston-street. No. 15
NEAR BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

THE UNDERSIGNED, MEMBERS OF THE FIRM OF KRAUSHAAR & CO., are practical Piano makers, and as such have had a large experience in connection with some of the best Establishments in this country and Europe. Their pianos are made not merely for home, but for export, and they allow no instruments to leave their factory and pass into the hands of their patrons, unless they have a power, evenness, firmness and roundness of tone, an elasticity of touch—without which no instrument ought to be satisfactory to the public—as well as a great durability in construction, which enables it to remain in tune and to withstand sudden changes of temperature and exposure to extreme heat and cold, which sometimes are unavoidable.

They will at all times be happy to see the profession and the public at their Warehouses, and invite comparison between their own Pianos and those of any other manufactory.

ANTON KRAUSHAAR, TOBIAS HAMM
CHARLES J. SCHONEMANN.

MANHOOD.

THE YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION, THE vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a young man often the wild line, the lack-insure eyes and uncontrolled form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary attention of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the youth of the body too much unfeeling to give rest to the mind and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inward upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the intense fever, with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation, and visiting the chest with the bloom of health.
But because of appetite has grown by what it fed on, and the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful system in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the patient's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies that never last waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

Best Medicine arising from the Kiosco or Early Indisposition.

Attended with the following symptoms: Incapacitation to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Morose Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dizziness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Weakness, Loss of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dypepsia, Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Tenderness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots flying before the Eyes, with Intermittent Fever and Loss of Sleep, Want of Attention, Great Irritability, Restlessness, with Horror of Solitude. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than this medicine, and nothing they more dread for Fear of their elbow, no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Faintness and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may die.

Dr. Wilson, the superintendent of Dr. Wilson, at the Massachusetts Asylum, and this result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left him, and still he remained. They were of both sexes, and were in the prime of life.

Who can say that these exasperate a not frequently by those direful diseases, and the most notable deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance suddenly sallow and quite destitute—neither mirth nor sadness visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur scarcely articulate.

"With woful measures wan Despair Low sullen sounds his grief beguiled."

While we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable chemical remedy for the removal of the consequences—
